

A walk in the Park

Discover Grand-Pré National Historic Site through the eyes of historical characters such as Herbin and Longfellow.

Tuesday to Friday

Longfellow at 1:30 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Sunday and Monday

Herbin at 12:30 p.m.

$3.90 - 45 minutes

Bilingual Historical Walk

Through captivating storytelling, a group of seven historical figures will present the evolution of the Landscape of Grand-Pré, inscribed on UNESCO's World Heritage List in 2012.

One hour $10

Every Saturday

12:30 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Voyage

From Tuesday to Friday at 12:30 p.m.

A bilingual play with puppets for the whole family. Presented in the visitor centre theatre.

Adapting to new lands, Rita the muskrat and Charles the seagull build a dyke and start over.

20 minutes - $4 for children; free for adults

Peace circle

Every Saturday at 4:45 p.m. at the forge.

Participate in a weekly peace circle featuring Mi'kmaw and Acadian female storytellers.

FREE

Sunday visit

Every Sunday at 4:30 p.m.

Visit the site through the eyes of John Frederic Herbin, Marie LeBlanc and Josette LeBlanc or Jeanne Dugas.

Bilingual

One hour $7

Listen to my story

Every Sunday at the theatre 1:30 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Through songs and storytelling, listen to the testimony of an Acadian exile from the 18th century: Josette LeBlanc (July 1st to August 5th) and from Jeanne Dugas (August 12th to the 26th).

20 minutes $4

Village

Fridays at 4:30 p.m.

Relive the spirit of the village of Grand-Pré through puppetry and storytelling.

45 minutes $5